

First Year Student Orientation and Registration Day for Fall Semester 2024

Dear Students,

First of all on behalf of everybody at Frederick University we would like to welcome you to our Frederick community!

As you know, the University organizes for all new students the First Year Student Orientation Day, in order to officially welcome you to the University and ensure your successful transition to higher education.

The Orientation Day for incoming undergraduate students and registration for your Fall 2024 courses will take place as follows:

- Limassol, Wednesday, September 25 at 09:00 (arrival at the University 08.30 – 08.50)
- Nicosia, Thursday, September 26 at 09:00 (arrival at the University 08.30 – 08.50)

During the Orientation Programme:

- You will receive important information regarding studies procedures, student services and student life opportunities.
- You will meet members of the academic faculty and will be informed about your program of study.
- You will meet fellow and continuing students.
- In addition, on the same day, you will meet with your Academic Advisor in order to register for Fall Semester classes.
- You will receive your timetable for the Fall Semester 2024.

Course Registration

In order to be eligible to register in your courses, part of the semester's tuition fees will have to be settled.
