Induction and Orientation Program for First Year Students

The first year of study is perhaps considered the most important for the successful path of a student in higher education. We, at Frederick University, want to ensure your academic success and so we offer, throughout September*, the Induction and Orientation Program so that we can make your transition to University as smooth as possible!

Preparatory Program Start Day
Monday, September 4, 2023
For students enrolled in the Department of Architect Engineer the Preparatory Program will start on Monday, September 11, 2023.

- Free intensive courses such as Maths and English to freshen up your knowledge and skills so you will be ready for your first-year courses.
- First year students' workshops that will introduce skills for a better transition to University and academic life.
- Fun activities that are organised throughout September such as "Sports Day at the Beach", free entrance to Music Festivals and more.

New Student Orientation Day
September, Thursday, September 28, 2023.

Do not miss the New Student Orientation Day where you will:

- Learn about student services and important information regarding your studies.
- Get information about your program of study and meet with the academic faculty.
- Meet your fellow students as well as current students in your program.
- Meet with your academic advisor and register to courses for Fall Semester 2023.

* More information regarding activities and exact dates will be posted soon on our website

My Semester Goals

Course Registration and Start of the Semester

Every semester, before the beginning of classes, you will need to meet with your Academic Advisor in order to register to your semester courses. For Fall 2023 you will be able to register to your courses during the New Students' Orientation Days that will take place on Thursday, September 28.

In order to be able to attend classes you need to have:

- Paid the tuition fees for the Fall 2023 semester. Your student account is now activated!
- Received through SMS on your mobile phone your student credentials (username & password). By using your student credentials, you can access all University's computing and information systems services.
- Met with your Academic Advisor during Orientation Day in order to register to your courses.
- Used your account credentials to access the Student Platform - Extranet in order to finalise your course registration and review your timetable <https://extranet.frederick.ac.cy>
- Activated your Student Email Account - Webmail. Use your student credentials and log in <https://webmail.frederick.ac.cy>
- Used your account credentials to access the E-learn Platform and the content of your semester courses. <https://learn.frederick.ac.cy>
- Completed (during the first two weeks of the semester) the Student Online Orientation Activity and been informed about the use of the information systems services, the rules, regulations and procedures that pertain to your studies, your rights and responsibilities as members of the academic community, as well as about all the student support services designed especially for you.
