

December 2022

Absence from Examinations

Applications for re-examination due to absence from the specified examination dates will not be approved.

Only In extreme cases (e.g. hospitalization, representation of Cyprus abroad), a special purpose committee will examine the relevant applications. Applications are submitted, together with supporting documents, to the DL unit at dlu@frederick.ac.cy. Applications will be accepted at most one week after the examination date for which the student did not attend. Students that have an examination the last day of the examination period must inform on the same day.

In case the said Committee approves the request, student will be informed about the day of its repetition.