FREDERICK UNIVERSITY

Message from the Program Director

Dear MBA candidate

Today, business decisions have to be taken under conditions of high uncertainty and volatility. Innovating and practical business solutions to problems and opportunities are needed more quickly and they become more complex. The practice of management is changing.

I am delighted to introduce you to our challenging and inspirational online MBA program aimed at creating successful managers and aspiring leaders who can develop solutions to emerging global economic and business challenges. The FREDERICK OnlineMBA is a flexible program, designed to offer you an option to complete our on-campus MBA's curriculum at a time that suits you and from any location you are based in the world while at the same time you can continue to work full-time. Through the strategic use of online technologies in education, this program adds real value to those of you who wish to accelerate your career, but, for a variety of reasons, cannot relocate or attend on-campus classes on a full-time basis. You can customize your MBA according to your own schedule and career needs using a modular structure and accessing the University's online learning platform that allows you to connect with your instructor and other students on the program from wherever you are based in the world.

I encourage you to embark on this vibrant and innovative program which gives you the opportunity to invest in yourself.

Professor Eleni Hadjiconstantinou PhD, DIC, BSc, FORS
MBA Program Director
Dean, School of Business and Law

Our MBA Philosophy

- Taking an MBA is a life-changing and demanding experience. It is committed to stimulate your thinking and give you the opportunity to learn how to manage and lead in a turbulent business environment.
- The FREDERICK OnlineMBA is an innovative and flexible program, designed to offer you the option to complete the curriculum of our on-campus MBA at a time that suits you and from any location you are based in the world.
